Day 1: Your tour guide will pick you up from your accommodation and make your way to Etosha; “Place of the great white spaces” was once a vast shallow lake created, Heigum Bushmen legend tells us, by the tears of a grieving mother. At its present size of 22270 square kilometers, it remains one of the largest parks in Africa. Okaukuejo Resort/ similar. Distance from Windhoek to Etosha: 415 km. (B&B D,A).

Day 2: Early breakfast, the day will be spent doing game drives around the park, visiting the many waterholes. Of the 114 mammals species found in the park, several are rare and endangered, such as black rhino and cheetah, and the lesser-known black faced impala, which is endemic to northwestern Namibia and southwestern Angola. Etosha's current population of black rhino represents one of the largest populations of black rhino in the world. Other large mammals in the park include elephant, giraffe, blue wildebeest, mountain and plains zebra, hyaena and lion. Cheetah and leopard complete the trio of the "big cats". Antelope species range from kudu, gemsbock and the large and stately eland, to the diminutive Damara dik-dik. . Okaukuejo Resort/ similar. (B&B D,A).

Day 3: The morning will be spent doing game drives visiting the different waterholes. After lunch, we will make our way back to Windhoek. You will get dropped off at your accommodation and bid your tour guide good-bye. (Breakfast).

GAME DRIVE Experience

Pick up from your accommodation to the lodge which is 49 km's out of Windhoek.

The area is brimming with wildlife and a large variety of species can be observed during game drives or at the waterhole.

Waterbuck, kudu, impala, eland, zebra, black and blue wildebeest, oryx, springbuck and many of the smaller antelope species roam the Auas savannah. Get up to a higher vantage point and you will see giraffe browsing at tree top level.

Morning or evening game drives and guided walks offer the best opportunity to encounter the wide selection of animals. Birdwatching enthusiasts will love the abundant bird species that flit among the trees surrounding the lodge.

N$1300.00 PER PERSON FOR 2 HOURS, INCLUDES SNACKS & DRINKS. Minimum 2 Pax.
